GARNET – On the path to SMART NETWORKING

Garnet Plywood has upgraded its website www.garnetply.in. The Website is more user friendly with a complete view of all the products allowing customers to search at their own comfort and ease. Besides, the company has also launched a Mobile App and entered the field of new age smart networking, so that the consumers can view and choose the required plywood at the click of a button immediately on their mobile.

The Company's Spokesman informed us, "Garnet believes in keeping itself updated by adopting latest advancements in technology for the comfort of its clients."

The launch of both the website and the Mobile App is in tandem with the promise of Garnet to provide the best services and products to consumers.
