Do you feel you are flawed? Well, let us tell you that there is nothing wrong with that. People tend to carve themselves according to other people's likes and dislikes. But in reality – true perfection lies in imperfection. Each one of us is unique in our own way. So, why not do away from other's ideas of a perfect home? How about adding a dash of your personality into your home décor? If you are in for it, then we have some simple tips for you.

Eye-catching geometry

After being away from the limelight for about three years, geometric accents are back with a bang. Geometric patterns are a smart way to add a visual appeal to your home décor with a pop of modern design.

These patterns give a symmetrical vibe to your space and create a subtle contrast that can complement and enhance a colour palette while looking incredibly modern and chic.

Since patterns play such an essential role in enriching your space, choosing a specific design that will seamlessly work with your interiors is extremely crucial. Choose a pattern that fits within your existing colour scheme, for example, create a herringbone pattern with hints of navy blue and white colours. It brings uniqueness to an already existing décor and helps make a statement with minimal effort. You can also add metallic tints such as a mini table clock to complement the rest of the décor without making space look cluttered.

Monochromatic mosaic

Speaking of patterns, today you can decorate your home with a gorgeous marble pattern which will infuse a glamorous twist to your space.

Create your picture-perfect monochrome look by having black and white décor pieces to enhance the look and feel of the space. To top it up, decorate your interiors by adding a different pattern such as a diamond patterned seat and match it with similar accessories. You can add some metallic touch to these marble design because metals work with marble like magic.

Metallic handles, doorknobs and legs for tables are the perfect way to add some extra glam to your space. These edgy patterns are sure to make your home look alive.

Minimalist bohemian

Bohemian designs are all about being yourself and looking natural. The style has gained popularity not only in the fashion world but also in the world of home décor. Colourful lanterns, low tables, floor cushions, walls with unique designs where you can choose whatever you like, and it is not necessary that things match. It is all about having a comfortable, natural and free-spirited look that resonates with your personality.

Switch to something grungier and rustic to give your space a retro appeal.

Every house becomes a home only when you add a little bit of yourself to it. So, this season, let your creativity fly and let your home show who you are.
