

HANG IN THERE

Available exclusively through Grandeur showrooms across India, the Vitrum collection by Pianca comprises wardrobes with a minimalist design and clean lines. Created with the finest materials in Italy, the glass-fronted wardrobe is replete with storage sections, and divided into shelves and hanging closet spaces. These wardrobes can be customized with respect to size, finish, colour and internal accessories. After the design and specifications are finalized with a Grandeur design representative, they are individually crafted using cutting-edge production methodologies in Italy and shipped to India. (grandeurinteriors.com)

CREATIVE SPACE

Decowood, from the house of Greenlam Industries, offers over 200 exotic timbers such as walnut, rosewood, mahogany, ebony and many more. These woods have been specially sourced from across the world, and are backed by fine craftsmanship, artistic skills, and years of expertise. This unique and exotic collection of high-grade veneers is processed at a state-of-the-art manufacturing facility in Rajasthan. Decowood has many variants you can opt for, like veneered MDF panels, and laminated and flexible veneers. Apart from the standard sheet size of 4 by 8 feet, Decowood offers specialized dimensions of 4 by 10 feet—as well as 3 by 7 feet for doors and panels. (decowoodveneers.com)

LAID BACK

Since 1959, iconic Italian brand Natuzzi has symbolized innovation and style, focusing its attention on achieving the best stylistic solutions, as well as providing comfortable furniture. Design and function are key elements in their wide range of sofas, armchairs, beds, dining tables and accessories. The 'Long Beach' sofa (pictured) designed by Italian architect Claudio Bellini is a modular sofa with crisp, clean lines and meticulous attention to detail. The sofa's height-adjustable feet can be easily set up to provide comfortable seating. (natuzzi.in)

