

Design Dekko

27 December 2022

Design Thinking, Home Decor, How to | Design Dekko Editorial

Glam up your home with quirky laminate trends in 2023

Updated On: 07 Jan 2023

The New Year is around the corner, and what everyone must be gearing up for now along with their cozy winter collection can be a new way to innovate their little shelter. Here are a few tips to transform your home's interiors into a relaxing space.

0 0

Share

Glam up your home with quirky laminate trends in 2023

The New Year is around the corner, and what everyone must be gearing up for now along with their cosy winter collection can be a new way to innovate their little shelter. When it comes to 2023 home decor trends, they can be more focused on aesthetics that are more unique and inimitable by sustainable products and practices.

A new year is often more than just making resolutions and gearing up for the next chapter of your life. It often comes up as a great opportunity to transform your home. With the arrival of each year, homes can begin to look old-fashioned and out of date in comparison to the upcoming trends.

Also Read | Chicago Architecture Biennial Announces Contributors for Fourth Edition: The Available City

However, it is the perfect time to revamp your space in efficient ways to suit the trend. A great way to combat the dullness and chills is by playing with textures in hues of warm and nature-inspired colours.

Here are a few tips to transform your home's interiors into a relaxing space:

1. From your neutral collection!

Product: Oatmeal Décor from Four X Ten Greenlam laminate collection

When it comes to designing your space, all you need are the right aesthetics and colours that match your aura. If you are looking for colours that are unique and classy, we suggest considering the Oatmeal décor from Greenlam laminate's newly launched Four X Ten collection. The neutral shade from this colour pallet provides a superior interior finish, making it ideal for panelling in common spaces, huge entrance door applications, kitchen and wardrobes and other commercial areas like office furniture and large conference tables. It is an ideal laminate that can be used for both residential and commercial settings.

Also Read: Festive Home Decor: 10 accessories you should add to your home

These 4ft wide and 10ft long laminates are the perfect choices for a seamless finish as they have unified looks without joints or intersections. It also involves less wastage and is more economical for users. Along with that it avoids the challenge of grain/ pattern mismatch and saves time during installation. It is a value proposition for customers in terms of time and effort; bring it to the best by having relevant certifications from the perspectives of health, quality, and the environment.

2. Make it look real!

Product: Austin walnut wood from Four X Ten Greenlam laminate collection

With technological advancements and people being aware of the latest trends the misconception that wood can only be used for flooring and furniture purposes has changed. Now wood can also be used in wall panelling, creating exquisite furniture surfaces, etc. Along with a subtle look, wood also gives your interior the warmth that is needed to relax during this chilly winter season. For revamping your interiors with a fresh outlook, we suggest considering the design of Austin walnut wood from the Greenlam laminates Four X Ten collection.

Also Read: Festive Home Decor: 10 accessories you should add to your home

The wood laminate can be used for both vertical and horizontal applications in commercial and residential settings. With artistic looks, these wood pattern laminates are equipped with a multitude of features including anti-bacterial, anti-virus, hydro, mould, scratch-resistant etc. These are also equipped with dimensional stability and non-toxic emissions for safe and hygienic spaces.

Also Read | Interior stylist Bhawana Bhatnagar on smart lockers at residential spaces