FLOORING TIPS TO SPRUCE UP YOUR HOME DÉCOR

Parul Mittal, Greenlam

The perfect time to revamp up your home and get every inch of your home into the happy spirit is by revamping their interiors because it involves less hassle, changing flooring becomes a pain point in most homes. Interior décor can spruce up your home, but flooring can set the tone of the room, inject personality and be a talking point while providing comfort underneath. A well-chosen flooring idea can uplift and dramatically change the look of your home.

Beautiful and detailed patterned floors can instantly change your mood and uplift the mood your home. If you are ready to make sure your floors feel as inviting as the guests, here are some flooring tips to look forward to this pre-festive season.

Naturally Real!

Wood floors are popular because of their aesthetically pleasing appearance. Unlike carpeted floors, they do not retain heat. If the wood is not exposed to direct sun, the floor can keep your home cool during any season as they are temperature neutral. With a wide acceptance of wood flooring from the homeowners, wood floors now come in various patterns and looks but what is a wood flooring without natural feel? Keeping this thought in mind, now the homeowners are looking for wood flooring that represents the true form of nature.

This festive season if you are looking for hassle free maintenance along with natural feeling, we suggest considering the Weathered collection by Mikasa floors from the house of Greenlam Industries. The Mikasa Weathered collection offers floors with unique designs and accentuated natural features. It highlights the real character of the wood with the knots, variation in colours, textures and strikes the correct balance between machine intervention and natural guidance. Apart from its exquisite beauty, these floors are also made with real woods that provide stability in any climatic condition and are easy to install, remove and re-install. Mikasa floors offer 30 years warranty on its vast portfolio of flooring options.

Vintage look and feel!
