Greenlam's three 'warm' picks for the winter season

Called 'A Blanket Affair', the three handpicked selection includes a veneer, wooden flooring and laminate that exudes all the warmth you need this season

‘A Blanket Affair!’ by Greenlam Industries Ltd. talks about how the winter season is all about calm and cosy décor trends. With natural wood tones, snug blankets and pastel hues, one can mix and match these décor elements to make a classy statement in the home.

Smoked Knotty Oak by Decowood from the house of Greenlam Industries Ltd. brings sophistication to the space with its subtle touch of nature. These decorative veneers are environment friendly with extremely intricate natural patterns which look flawless in the interiors. A cozy corner adorned in classic white mini blanket makes up for a relaxing reading nook as well. Seamlessly blend this look with patterned cushions in chevron and herringbone patterns. Patterns weave a sense of calmness and complement the elegant backdrop.

Oak Stein by Mikasa premium engineered wooden floors from the house of Greenlam Industries Ltd. is a bold and stunning floor in a coffee shade. For a winter bliss, pair this dark tint with pastels and light grey colours to create an alluring flow in the space. Grey is one of the biggest trends for 2020. Style your room with a wooden side-table in earthy tones for a contemporary touch. Play around with accents like a table clock or a metallic lantern to infuse pure decadence in your room. This look will help one to create a visual treat for the eyes while blending a variety of colours to form a humble abode.

Almond Pink by Greenlam Laminates from the house of Greenlam Industries Ltd. brings a charming grace to the interiors. The evergreen wooden texture when paired with just the right amount of glitz and glitter gives a luxurious yet tranquil essence. Go for an armless chair in rose gold colour with royal blue cushions to bring a chic factor to the home décor. This spot can double-up as a relaxing area to read or enjoy a hot cup of coffee during a frosty evening. Lastly, place metallic accents like a small mirror or ceramics as décor pieces to complete this stunning look.
