

The Indian Express

17 May 2022

How to make your interiors cooler and more stylish in summer

A few smart home décor hacks will do the job for you this season

Laminate your walls with shades of blue that make you feel closer to nature. (Photo: Getty/Thinkstock)

The need of the hour, or rather the season, is to spend more time at home to avoid the summer heat, and to make the home space comfortable for everyone.

If you are wondering how to make your house cooler by blocking out all the heat, know that a few smart home decor hacks will do the job for you, and make you want to stay home as much as you possibly can.

According to Parul Mittal, director of Greenlam Industries Ltd, this involves forgetting the bold and the bright, and switching to cooler shades. Not the mundane beiges, whites, and greys, but muted colours like shades of classic blue, which are eye-soothing and calming.

ALSO READ | Five ways to make your home feel more luxurious

“With a white or grey kitchen, you can have a blue cabinet with golden hardware or laminate for your walls with shades of blue that make you feel closer to nature. We suggest considering shades of country blue and twilight blue,” she says.

A promotional banner for 'BEST OF EXPRESS PREMIUM'. The banner has a dark blue background with the title 'BEST OF EXPRESS PREMIUM' in yellow at the top. Below the title are four article thumbnails, each with a 'Premium' tag in the top right corner. The first thumbnail is titled 'ExplainSpeaking | How inflation beat the RBI: A recent history' and features a red car. The second is 'God has gifted me pace and that's bringing me the love of people around I...' with a man in an orange shirt. The third is 'Network of fake accounts inflated BJP MP posts; staffer prompted, but Fa...' with the Facebook logo. The fourth is 'Explained: Why kidney rackets thrive' with hands holding a kidney. At the bottom right of the banner is the text 'More Premium Stories &gt;&gt;'.

Mittal adds that since the living room is the first space that one enters or passes through, they are the mini showroom of the house.

“Decorative veneers give you a break from the usual mundane, offering an aesthetic appeal. In summers, with people spending most of their time at home, they can look at making the living space more aesthetically-pleasing by using veneers that also add a style quotient,” she suggests, adding that applying dyed, natural veneers in the living space can give you a break from the usual bold series.

ALSO READ | Five sustainable décor tips for your new home

“A well-decorated house can instantly uplift your mood and can make your life much more pleasant. So, consider revamping your space with these décor ideas this summer,” she concludes.

MSN

17 May 2022

The need of the hour, or rather the season, is to spend more time at home to avoid the summer heat, and to make the home space comfortable for everyone.

If you are wondering how to make your house cooler by blocking out all the heat, know that a few smart home decor hacks will do the job for you, and make you want to stay home as much as you possibly can.

According to Parul Mittal, director of Greenlam Industries Ltd, this involves forgetting the bold and the bright, and switching to cooler shades. Not the mundane beiges, whites, and greys, but muted colours like shades of classic blue, which are eye-soothing and calming.

ALSO READ | Five ways to make your home feel more luxurious

"With a white or grey kitchen, you can have a blue cabinet with golden hardware or laminate for your walls with shades of blue that make you feel closer to nature. We suggest considering shades of country blue and twilight blue," she says.

Mittal adds that since the living room is the first space that one enters or passes through, they are the mini showroom of the house.

"Decorative veneers give you a break from the usual mundane, offering an aesthetic appeal. In summers, with people spending most of their time at home, they can look at making the living space more aesthetically-pleasing by using veneers that also add a style quotient," she suggests, adding that applying dyed, natural veneers in the living space can give you a break from the usual bold series.

ALSO READ | Five sustainable décor tips for your new home

"A well-decorated house can instantly uplift your mood and can make your life much more pleasant. So, consider revamping your space with these décor ideas this summer," she concludes.

Newspostalk

17 May 2022

WORLD

How to make your interiors cooler and more stylish in summer

By Abigail Smith · May 17, 2022 · 2 min read

Getty/indianexpress.com

The requirement of the hr, or instead the period, is to invest even more time in the house to stay clear of the summer season warmth, and also to make the residence area comfy for every person.

If you are questioning exactly how to make your residence colder by shutting out all the warmth, understand that a couple of wise residence style hacks will certainly get the job done for you, and also make you intend to stay at home as high as you potentially can.

According to Parul Mittal, supervisor of Greenlam Industries Ltd, this includes neglecting the strong and also the brilliant, and also switching over to cooler tones. Not the ordinary off-whites, whites, and also greys, yet low-key colours like tones of traditional blue, which are eye-soothing and also relaxing.

"With a white or grey kitchen area, you can have a blue closet with gold equipment or laminate for your wall surfaces with tones of blue that make you really feel closer to nature. We recommend thinking about tones of nation blue and also twilight blue," she states.

Mittal includes that because the living-room is the very first area that a person gets in or goes through, they are the mini display room of your house.

"Ornamental veneers provide you a break from the normal ordinary, supplying a visual charm. In summertimes, with individuals investing a lot of their time in the house, they can consider making the home a lot more aesthetically-pleasing by utilizing veneers that additionally include a design ratio," she recommends, including that using colored, all-natural veneers in the home can provide you a break from the normal strong collection.

"A well-decorated residence can immediately boost your state of mind and also can make your life far more positive. So, take into consideration overhauling your area with these decor suggestions this summer season," she ends.

Mobile News Prepar

17 May 2022

How to make your interiors cooler and more stylish in summer

Published 3 weeks ago on May 17, 2022
By MNP Staff

The need of the hour, or rather the season, is to spend more time at home to avoid the summer heat, and to make the home space comfortable for everyone.

If you are wondering how to make your house cooler by blocking out all the heat, know that a few smart home decor hacks will do the job for you, and make you want to stay home as much as you possibly can.

According to Parul Mittal, director of Greenlam Industries Ltd, this involves forgetting the bold and the bright, and switching to cooler shades. Not the mundane beiges, whites, and greys, but muted colours like shades of classic blue, which are eye-soothing and calming.

"With a white or grey kitchen, you can have a blue cabinet with golden hardware or laminate for your walls with shades of blue that make you feel closer to nature. We suggest considering shades of country blue and twilight blue," she says.

Mittal adds that since the living room is the first space that one enters or passes through, they are the mini showroom of the house.

"Decorative veneers give you a break from the usual mundane, offering an aesthetic appeal. In summers, with people spending most of their time at home, they can look at making the living space more aesthetically-pleasing by using veneers that also add a style quotient," she suggests, adding that applying dyed, natural veneers in the living space can give you a break from the usual bold series.

"A well-decorated house can instantly uplift your mood and can make your life much more pleasant. So, consider revamping your space with these décor ideas this summer," she concludes.