Have you been thinking of re-decorating your home lately? Amidst the prolonged lockdown, you may be confused between completely transforming your space and making minute changes.

After getting instincts to revamp your space, especially with the overly long COVID-19 lockdown, it is quite natural to feel stuck about where to start from. Also, there are times when we are flooded with home décor ideas yet so clueless. All it takes to create an extraordinary space is a little bit of imagination and a knack for experimenting with distinct elements.

Bringing back retro interiors

Retro styles resonate with trends such as animal prints, floral wallpapers, wicker furniture and much more. What stayed timeless and elegant since that phase is the everlasting charm of wooden components. Homes furnished with the darker wood flooring and cabinetry weaved an environment which felt intimate, comfortable and inviting. If we talk about replicating a similar look today, a lot of us would like to tweak it by adding minimalism as an uncluttered space paves the way for a peaceful mind.

Accompaniments

You can start with choosing a neutral shade to contrast the beauty of your wooden floors. For instance, the vibrant dark brown shade when paired with cream or beige creates a cosy ambience. To enliven the rustic allure, how can one forget about the antique showpieces that instantly become the centre of attraction? You can place readily available old radio-sets or brassware lampshades on your wooden cabinets to ace the look without the hassle of spending extra. One can also go for a ceramic floor vase to complement the colour scheme. Lastly, remember to keep your space neatly arranged.

White walls and ceiling exude a clean yet classic look when teamed up with the right interiors, which helps in avoiding the monotonous vibe. This way, your dreamy white abode can also reflect a refreshing aura. To achieve this look, add natural material along with slight pops of colour. For instance, infuse some energy into your living-dining room by adding a statement rug in grass green colour. While both these elements will inspire serenity in your space, opting for a pre-polished surface is a perfect choice for every season as it comes with seven layers of protection against damage.

Classic furniture choices

Adorn your sofa set with cushions in rainbow colours and let the natural light strike to multiply your joy of the rainy season. To accentuate your walls, we suggest sticking to minimal wall paintings or hangings to marry it with the rest of the interior design. Bring in some fresh air too with succulents or table planters.

Crafting a luxurious bedroom doesn't always require complete transformations as with just the smallest of changes you can see significant results. A statement wall here, some abstract art there and voila your marvellous space is ready. Begin with designing a contemporary look for your walls with light brown shades, elegantly standing out against a royal grey shade.

To revamp an old stool, take out old clothes with different patterns or textures and weave them to create an art piece of your own. Upholster this newly designed cloth on your stool and top it up with a metallic showpiece to add that pinch of sheer finesse to your room. Speaking about the bed, go for the bold colour scheme of black and white splashed over your bedsheets, cushions and blankets. With scented candles placed in any corner of the room, you are sorted for a night of beauty sleep.

With a décor theme for every taste, you can experiment with these tips and tricks today to convert your ordinary space into a spectacular paradise.
