Whilst you get ready to relish the upbeat vibes coupled with rainy days, it is imperative to observe the only theme blossoming this season is experimentation with colors and quirky patterns. Floral, bohemian, chic, royal, minimal, funky or abstract, there are a plethora of themes to choose from. Along with the bright and colorful rainbow days, monsoons have a way of giving a freshness and novelty to the air. Put on your creative shoes and play with the hues of monsoon with vibrancy and eccentric décor around you.

If you simply enjoy this aromatic weather cloaked in the coziness and comfort of your home, then look out for these décor trends to make your home monsoon ready!

Breezy Blues

The secret to calm and serene bedroom lies within the neutral shades of blue, white and gray, teamed-up with minimal décor pieces. For quite some-time now, this has been an ever-green mantra for fabricating the nautical theme giving your home an alluring essence. Break the monotony of your walls with the Classic Marble Laminate from NewMika that complements the new-age furnishings. To give it a perfect edge, pair it with darker tints of brown and play around with textures fostering its bold charm.

Bedding would be incomplete without cushions in subtle geometrical shapes and a soft blanket. Add a pastel blue midcentury-modern chair, a chocolate brown cabinet along with a statement lamp to instantly elevate the look. Not to forget, pair them with succulents or recycled planters to bring forth the refreshing aura. What could be better than sipping some hot chocolate while you binge watch your favorite sitcom, enveloped in your cozy bedroom during monsoons? Sounds like a perfect evening to us!

A Picturesque space

Minimalism has been a growing trend in the décor industry with white and minimalist kitchen continuing to rule this space. Incorporate small pendant lighting fixtures, statement chairs and seamless cabinets, that evoke a contemporary yet sophisticated appeal to the space. To make your kitchen look aesthetically chic, avoid cluttering your space with multiple kitchen appliances.

Classic white hues paired with gorgeous grays and coral neutrals, undoubtedly makes room for some elegance. Satin White laminate from NewMika beautifully balances these beautiful colors blending with your minimal décor elements. If you're planning to host a monsoon brunch, you can also opt for floral patterns to add strategic pops of vibrant colors to your décor.

A chemistry of cabinets

Classic wooden furniture never goes out of vogue, instead with each passing year it brings in different design perspective. Making it to the top furnishing trends, seamless cabinets and shelves are all the rage this season and are an easy way to upgrade the design of any blank wall. It offers a blank canvas to discover your creative instincts while you can personalize with hand-made artworks, antique pieces, books and quirky photo frames. Amidst such exuberant elements choose laminates from NewMika which are available in striking gray tones in the chiseled wood texture.

Further accessorize your space with a vibrant modern chair and knit couches to create a vintage aura. A pro-tip for the upkeep of your wooden furniture upholstery from monsoon is to look for anti-bacterial and steam resistant coatings.
