

Oak Tar by Decowood Premium Veneers: Sophistication and elegance for washroom space

March, 2019

Greenlan Industries' The Games of Tones talks about how with a variety of colours and tones one can have stunning interiors and add a certain oomph to a home. Oak Tar by Decowood Premium Veneers from the house of Greenlam Industries is an excellent fitment to your décor. Oak Tar aptly provides a sense of sophistication and elegance to your washroom space. With an availability of vertical and horizontal grain patterns, you can style your existing décor by adding some crisp personality to your interiors. In addition to accentuating the element of premium veneers, this shade can provide a pop of vibrant colour to a monochrome décor.
