

Revitalise your home interiors this monsoon season

Parul Mittal
Director - Marketing & Design
Greenlam Industries Ltd.

Here are a few monsoon decor ideas that may help to keep your spirits up while listening to the dance of droplets outside. When it begins to shower, make these little monsoon decor updates to revitalise the ambience of your interiors.

Many people are revelling in the frequent showers of monsoon; while some are prepping up their window views to enjoy a hot cup of tea at the sight of a rainy sky. Amidst such beautiful weather outside and high spirits, who would not want to keep that monsoon cheer alive inside their homes too? Indeed, we all do. Adding pops of colours, rich textures, and a pinch of personalisation will make up for pleasant home décor but don't forget to keep monsoon blues away from your home interiors.

Here is how you can decode a perfect monsoon space that is both safe and delightful.

There are days when you feel like spending some quality time with yourself amidst a warm and comfortable comfortable environment. All you need is to add a dash of vibrancy for transforming your space into an energetic abode. With dual power of adding both happiness and enthusiasm, shades of orange can give a new personality to your lounging corner. Start with opting for premium wooden laminated cabinets whose bold and unique looks are attracting a lot of attention nowadays. For instance, make a playful statement by standing out against the earthy tones. Moreover, you can add highly durable and easy to maintain surfacing solution with a ten year warranty period so that you don't have to worry about the life span of your furniture.

To further amplify the look, go for a grey-toned armchair paired with zig-zag patterned cushions. Adorn your laminated cabinet with your favourite books and antique ornaments to add some visual appeal. Lastly, infuse vibes of a verdant landscape by moving your plants indoors, or you can also use small succulents instead.

Who said you could not have as much fun or enjoy a relaxing time at home as compared to when you are near the sea? The world is slowly adopting the new trend of re-doing homes, much like the travelling destination on people's mind. For an easy nautical makeover, add just the right amount of the colour blue in your woven stools and chairs. What sets this colour apart is the personal touch and comfort it seamlessly adds to your surroundings. Remember to keep the space minimal to allow the refreshing monsoon air to breathe in your room.

What accentuates this décor theme is bringing an element of natural wood to your space. One can opt for a combination of open and closed shelves which makes organisation easier. Plus its novel gloss texture effortlessly complements the colour scheme. Most importantly, this laminate comes with dimensional stability, so you can use it in any climatic condition without worrying about replacing it seasonally. Go for ceramic pots, floral frames or jute knitted baskets, and your space will exude sheer happiness of being at a seaside. With monsoon cocktails and rainy season delicacies, you are ready to make the most out of your get-togethers or family time surrounded by beautiful interiors.

This year, beat the gloominess of the monsoon season by creating a lively bedroom for a perfect sleep which also makes you wake-up joyfully in the morning. When it comes to achieving a serene look, neutral hues can do wonders to your space. You can choose a soothing palette with warm grey, crisp white and beige for your furniture and bedding. These colours not only exude a sense of oneness with nature but also delivers it in a real way. Since for a lot of us, no monsoon décor is complete without a pop of colour, go for a quirky cushion in bright yellow colour with white polka dots or leafy patterns on it.

Speaking about walls, today everyone is looking for premium wood pattern laminates that are resistant to surface wear and tear, considering the amount of time one spends in the bedroom. Therefore, try to use materials with resistance to cracks, stain, heat and scratch, making it an ideal choice. Choose wooden frames as wall hangings and place a small bowl of potpourri with a few drops of essential oil to spread the aroma around your bedroom. Your interiors will help you calm your body, mind and soul.

Whether you want to try any individual or all the three décor trends, we assure you the outcome will spellbind you in the freshness and vitality of the monsoon season.