The month of June is just about to go, and the coming month will mark the arrival of monsoons. Let us make this monsoon stylish for our homes that are longing for a quick yet refreshing rejig.

It is that time of the year again when all we want is to drop our chores and curl up in the bed with a book. While monsoons can make your living space look grey and dreary, it is considered to be one of the best times of the year to spruce up your space. A great way to combat the dullness of monsoons is to through decor.

Here are some easy ways of dressing up your home with the latest fashion trends to beat the monsoon gloominess.

Adopt minimalism

While thinking to redecorate your home, adopt the look of minimalism. However, make sure to provide variety alongside preserving balance. For floors, there are so many different types of designs that can complement your minimalist home. If you want wooden floors, bamboo is the perfect option that can enhance light and ventilation inside the rooms. It is a durable material that is moisture-resistant as well. White washed wood floors is another option for those who want a lighter finish.

To balance the statement look, go for neutral shades of grey or off-white. These will help achieve the minimalist fashion look for your home while still making it look classy. Keep your furniture minimum and engage in decluttering the space. You can also add some sheer curtains to begin the season ahead in style. Minimal and muted accessorising of these curtains is enough to give a pleasant look.

Boho Chic is not a trend. It is a Vibe!

Boho is the short form for Bohemian, and the style is inspired by the lifestyle of hippies. It is all about being yourself and looking natural. The style has gained popularity not only in the fashion world but also in the world of home decor. Colourful lanterns, low tables, floor cushions, and walls with unique designs- you can choose whatever you like, and it is not necessary that the things match. It is all about having a comfortable, natural and free-spirited look.

When it comes to boho-style decor, it is eclectic by nature, and there are no limitations. One can add this style to the interiors by opting for decorative veneers. Complete the look by incorporating a wooden woven seating arrangement for relaxation and enjoyment purposes.

Spruce up your living room with vibrant colours

Monsoon season is the perfect occasion to experiment with bright colours that reflect the peppy side of your fashion sense. The idea here is to mix the brightness of a sunny day with the freshness of the monsoon rains. So, enliven the sparkle and energy of an electric blue sofa by pairing it with furniture made of wood pattern laminates for a contrasting effect.

Go a step ahead and play with colours by splashing pink, yellow, and orange in small elements such as cushions and lamps to oomph the look. Place a soft and warm rug in the shade of grey, which will help create a welcoming vibe. You can personalise this space with succulents, handmade artworks, antique pieces, books, quirky photo frames and beyond!
